IMPORTANT

Continuing Obligation of Disclosure

You declare that the information given in this Proposal Form is true in every respect and that you have not withheld or misrepresented any information that has been requested. You acknowledge the serious consequences of failure to disclose all material information and that failure to do so may invalidate your Policy or result in your Policy not operating fully.

The Insured must tell The Company as soon as possible during the period of insurance of any change:

1. to the business;
2. in the person, firm, company or organisation shown in the schedule as the insured;
3. to the information The Insured provided to The Company previously or any new information that increases the risk of loss as insured under any section of the policy.

Any change that was not within the reasonable scope of the agreed business may not be accepted by The Company and claims may not be paid. In this case the policy will come to an end from the date of the change unless The Company agree in writing to accept an alteration.

The Company do not have to accept any request to vary the policy if it is deemed to change the scope of the agreed contract. If The Insured wishes to make any alteration to the policy The Insured must disclose any change to the information previously provided or any new information that could affect this insurance. If The Company accept any variation to the policy, an increase in the premium or different terms or conditions of cover may be required by The Company.

You agree that this proposal form will form the basis of the contract between you and the Company. If any answer has been written by a person other than the undersigned, you agree that such person shall be your agent and not an agent of the Company.

Warning:

As it is an offence under the Road Traffic Act to make any false statement or withhold information to get a certificate of insurance, you should make sure that you answer all questions fully and accurately. If the proposer is a firm or a private company, you must read and answer the questions as though they also apply to each individual partner or member.

Under the third EU Non-life Directive we must give you the following information before you buy your policy:

The law that applies to the contract:

Under the relevant European and Irish laws, we, Axa Insurance dac and you, the proposer, are free to choose the law that will apply to the contract. We propose that Irish law will apply to the contract. We, Axa Insurance dac, will provide the insurance under this policy.
