- c) whereby the risk of loss or damage or accident or liability is increased;

- (each of (a) – (e) an alteration)

whereby the risk is taken outside that which was within beyond the reasonable contemplation of the Parties when the contract of insurance was concluded. Irrespective of whether any such notification has been made (but without prejudice to Your obligation to make those notifications), the Insurer may refuse claims made by You where any alteration constitutes a change in the subject matter of this Policy and circumstances have so changed that it can properly be said by the Insurer that the new risk is something which, on the true construction of the Policy, the Insurer did not agree to cover. The foregoing does not limit or exclude and is without prejudice to any other remedies that may be available to the Insurer under this Policy or otherwise, in connection with an alteration.

However, the Insurer agrees not to refuse such claims if:

- i) You have notified such alteration in writing to the Insurer in good time to enable the Insurer to assess the alteration and the alteration is not of such a nature that, if the alteration had occurred prior to the commencement of this Policy, the Insurer would not have entered into this Policy on any terms;

An award made by the arbitrator shall be a condition precedent to any right of legal action against the Insurer. If the dispute has not been referred to arbitration within the aforesaid twelve month period then the claim shall be deemed to have been abandoned and not recoverable thereafter.

Failure to comply with a notification period will not entitle us to refuse a claim unless such failure has prejudiced the Insurer. Prejudice may include, without limitation, restricting or impeding the Insurer's ability to investigate or defend any claim by or against the Insured, incurring or increasing any loss, damage, liability cost or payment that would not otherwise have been incurred or not occurred to the same extent and/or impeding or restricting the ability to obtain contribution from or to exercise subrogation rights against any other person (including any other insurer).

Where the Insured is a Consumer, it is hereby agreed by us that any warranties or conditions precedent to liability contained in this policy document or policy schedule shall be treated as suspensive conditions in accordance with Section 19 of the Consumer Insurance Contracts Act 2019 (or any legislation amending or replacing this Act).

Failure by a Consumer to comply with a notification period will not entitle us to refuse a claim unless such failure has prejudiced the Insurer. Prejudice may include, without limitation, restricting or impeding the Insurer's ability to investigate or defend any claim by or against the Insured, incurring or increasing any loss, damage, liability cost or payment that would not otherwise have been incurred or not occurred to the same extent and/or impeding or restricting the ability to obtain contribution from or to exercise subrogation rights against any other person (including any other insurer).
